Annual BULLDOG Issue

HERE IS THE annual Bulldog Issue of Dog News and as usual there are pictures galore and considerable news. Much of the news, of course, centers around the pictures.

The introduction to the list of current Champions, gives data on the leading sire, dam and breeder, and we have made a hasty run-down as to how the breed did during our fiscal year's period as far as winning Groups and Best in Shows are concerned. The wins cover a period, as do the current Champions from lists in issues of the American Kennel Gazette from August 1964 through July 1965.

CH. MY GAL SASSY BRENDA

Owned by
C. E. Back, Memphis, Tenn.

A current Champion, finished at twenty-two months with four majors, after taking time out to raise a family.

Some eighteen different Bulldogs won groups, several of them multiple groups. On a hasty run-down we believe the only Best in Show chalked up by a Bulldog during the period mentioned was in May of this year at Birmingham, Ala., when Ch. Davisette's El Toro went through to Best in Show All Breeds. El Toro also won two other groups for a total of three.

Ch. Cragman's Cameron also won three Groups during the period, as did Ch. Marmac's Bold Venture. Ch. Ellenberger's Cholmondely, Ch. Eastgate's Stalwart Beauan won two Groups each. Bulldogs which won single Groups during the period include: Ch. Sandow's Smasher, Ch. Theovian Stu-Nought Jones, Miller's Autumn Haze, Ch. Allin's High Hopes, Ch. Mim Jim's Buckle Too of Cha-Ru, Ch. Mapo's Nod, Ch. Jerohn's I'm Mr. Kelley, Ch. Gee & Dee's Veno, Ch. Clitheroe Kid, Ch. Gatewood Paymaster Re-Echo, Lewisfield Tootsie, Ch. Bet-Tenn's Independent Imp, Ch. Hard Rock's Low Commotion.

Actually the record is quite good for the Non-Sporting Group is a tough one, particularly so at this time when there are so many, many Poodles being shown. In addition to this fact, Poodles do have two representatives in the Group. No one can deny that a good Poodle is a tough one to beat in the Group—he is a natural showman, loves the limelight and, if this is coupled with quality, he is very apt to head the group. Records prove this.

We hope the list is complete. If, inadvertently any dog was omitted, we hope you will forgive us and send us information concerning the win.

Abe and Suzi Segal, whose dogs are pictured on our cover, had a party recently—a sort of a double celebration, since it was their tenth year in Bulldogs and old Ch. Leo The Lamb's tenth birthday. It was a big fracas, everybody, including old Leo, enjoyed it thoroughly. The old boy holds his age wonderfully, won the Veterans' class, you know, at the recent PCBA Specialty, and when the Best of Breed judging was going on, it was Leo and the eventual Winner that were finally standing side-by-side. Abe said it was good they did not move him, since he was coming up with a sore shoulder from jumping off the Segals' bed. Okay now of course.
